

2016 Summer Learn To Kayak

Open to youth ages 9-13, Potomac Whitewater Racing Team's summer camp introduces recreational whitewater kayaking to kids in a low-key environment. To ensure high quality of instruction and the safety of our students, student to instructor ratio is 4:1. Our instructors are First Aid, CPR, and Swiftwater Rescue certified. The Potomac River, with its warm water, is the perfect place to take up the sport as a beginner. Beginners will learn safety skills and the fundamentals of maneuvering in easy current. Advanced beginners and intermediates will master their eskimo roll and hone their river skills. For more information, photos of past camps, and registration forms go to:

About the Potomac Whitewater Racing Center

For more than 30 years, the PWRC has provided whitewater athletes with world class, year-round facilities, training and coaching along the Potomac River. That support, together with the Potomac region's mild climate and awesome whitewater, has produced numerous World and Olympic medalists in white-water canoe and kayak.
